East Washington High School Presentation of the 1950 "PiLot" in Commemoration of another half century of Progress.

Dedication

It is with great pleasure and pride that the Senior Class of nineteen fifty dedicates its Pilot to Miss Frances P. Garver.

In the many years during which she has served as music instructor at East Washington, Miss Garver has been a conscientious teacher and a ready advisor to all her students. Her cheerfulness and capability as leader of the chorus and choir have won her many friends in those organizations.

Miss Garver's constant striving for perfection and her insistance on a high grade of work from her pupils have developed qualities in her students for which they are eternally grateful.

In recognition of her unselfish and untiring efforts on behalf of the students of East Wash, the Senior Class wishes to express its gratitude and appreciation to Miss Garver.

Principal

To The Class of 1950

You have now completed another step on the road that will eventually lead to a useful, productive life. Your ability to go further depends on your desire for more education and training.

I sincerely hope that such a desire is constantly in your minds and ready for expression.

Late news flash ! East Washington High School condemned unsafe for occupancy ! Juicy gossip !! Student seen in public with noted Chemistry teacher ! Well, maybe things like that don't appear in the Orient, but everything of importance, whether large or small, does. Poems, stories, news articles, jokes, gossip, sports, and just about everything and anything could be printed in the paper when it goed on sale every two weeks. Some of the better articles even appear in the semi-annual publication called the Osaw.

The editorial positions are rotated with each addition of the Orient so each each member of the class will have a chance to face the various problems of a newspaper career.

The Galloping Ghosts of East Washington, under the mentorship of Falph G. Forquer, compiled, in 1949, one of the best records in recent years. With the loss of eight seniors from their 1948 team, the Ghosts were hard pressed but ended the season with a fine record of five wins against three losses. Acclaimed by many as the best game of the year was the East Wash - McDonald tilt which the Spooks dropped by a 27-18 score. Stewart, co-captain and senior quarterback, was nominated to the Washington-Greene County Class B team. Many others made the second team and still others were awarded honorable mention.

The Seniors who are leaving this year are: Craig Wayman, Paul Fetherlin, John Slater, John Flack, Bill Russell, Dick Call, Walter Whitcher, Bill Doak, Bob Munnell, and Bud Stewart. Their services will be sorely missed.

For the seventh consecutive year, the "Galloping Ghosts" of East Washington High School have won their section 25 in the basketball league with a final tally of 16 wins and 4 losses. The hardworking coach of our victorious team is Arlton G. Grover.

The squad is not a tall one, but it makes up for this deficiency in speed and agressiveness. This years team was built around Captain Bud Stewart, Bob Munnell, Bob Caffrey, Bill Dinsmore, John Flack, Bill Doak, and George Bigler, veterans of last year.

In the reserve, Coach Grover has Tom Wiley, George Reese, Tom Furbee, Bill Litle, and Wally Bigler.

As his assistant Coach, Mr. Grover has Ralph Forquer, who is also the head football coach. The seniors who will graduate in June are: Bud Stewart, Bob Munnell, John Flack, George Bigler, Tom Wiley, and Bill Doak.

On March first, East Washington faces Midway in the first playoff game. The game will be played at Dormont High School.

We wish them all possible success and long endurance in the tournament.

The East Washington baseball nine opened the 1949 season at Claysville with Bill Doak pitching. The batting of Bill Dinsmore and Frank Mozina, supported by the other seven, won the game 7-2.

The Trinity Hillers were our second opponents in game number two and proved to be too much for us as the final score was 23- 6 in favor of the Hillers. Paul Fetherlin was the big batter for E. W. and the pitching was done by Ed Paul and Paul Stater.

In the third game the "Ghosts" played host to the Washington High School nine and dropped another to the tune of 15-4. The pitching was done by Chauncey Hoffman and Bill Doak, allowing 16 hits for Wash High to five hits for East Wash. Batting stars were Munnell and Doak.

East Washington faced Canonsburg in bout number four to lose again 9-6. Pitching was done by Paul Slater and Ed Paul and Bob Munnell got nine hits.

Game number five was another loss for East Wast; this time to Chartiers to th e tune of 12-3. The batting crowns were awarded to Doak and Caffrey, while pitching title went to Paul Slater.

East Wash defeated Canonsburg in a return bout with only a small margin:7-6. Chauncey Hoffman and George Bigler were on the pitching mound.

Wash High again proved to be too much for E.W. and defeated us again; this time to the tune of 10-2. Jack Myers batted two out of the three hits and Paul Slater did the pitching.

In the eighth game we let another game slide through our hands into the mitts of Trinity and the final score was 11-0. Bill Doak pitched this time.

Number nine was another win for the"Ghosts". The conquered team was Claysville and the score was 9-8. Hoffman and Slater pitched.

The tenth and final game was lost to Chartiers 20-3. Pitchers were Slater, Hoffman and Ed Paul.

The East Washington nine finished in fourth place and is looking foward to a better season in 1950. The team will remain the same with the exception of Paul Slater, Chauncey Hoffman and Frank Mozina, who graduated.

Prophecy

As I gaze into my second hand crystal ball, the year of 1960 hovers before us. Out of it's misty depths arises the graduating class of 1950.

From the latest issue of "Torrid Western Love Stories" magazine comes the fact that June Crouser has just been voted "Miss Western Cowgirl of 1960". As first prize she was awarded a 60,000 acre ranch in Southwestern Texas.

John Martin has just taken over Joe Chitwood's Hell Drivers and has revised the group and now calls it "Martin's Mobile Murderers". He has been the AAA champion automobile racer for the past three years.

We see from the latest stock reports that "United Rice Mills Inc.", run by Nancy Prigg, has gone up fifteen points in the last forty-eight hours. She has been producing her own rice since her Junior year in high school.

Alice Poellot, famous opera singer, and her renowned accompanist, Jeanne Boyd, have recently returned from an eighteen month tour of Europe and the newly formed nation of Texas. The duo has traveled under the un-operatic name of "Garver's Girlies" so as not to attract attention.

Ah hah! What's this? Why it's Craig Wayman and John Slater announcing their plans to succeed Norman Thomas and run for president and vice-president, respectively, on the Socialist ticket. They have held no other political offices, but it is said that they got their start in politics in Mr. Jack's P.O. D. class.....Shrewdness at it's peak.

In the educational field we see that Marcelle Stargardter has just completed her Spanish Translation of Macbeth. She has previously translated into Greek and Russian such famous books as Tressler's "English in Action" and that best seller "Night Life of the Gods".....Si, Si, Senor!

Also in the educational field, we find that Walter Whitcher, the greatest scientist since Howard Jack, has finally solved Einstein's Theory of Relativity and found it to be entirely wrong. Says Walter of the theory, "I knew it all the time." Gad, what sorcery!

Looking in on Sally Hannon's "Jazziest Funeral Parlor" in Eastern Slobbovia, we find that Sally is about to bring back to life her one thousandth corpse. Sally got her start in business one night 'way back in the Fall of 1949.

Barbara Chalfant has just finished her tour of South America. She was lecturing on Solid Geometry and its value to the American dollar.

The world famous Elliott B. Meyer has added a branch office of his "Second Hand Diamond Inc." in London. He has cleaned up a small fortune buying wedding and engagement rings from divorcees and reselling them.

Carolyn Leech, Washington's version of Katherine Hepburn, has been on Broadway for three years with her own interpretation of the Christmas play that was put on at East Washington in 1949. She has been playing before sell-out crowds.

Stuart Horne, that famous driver of the Indianapolis 800, is the first man on record to win the race four times in succession. He now produces his own cars.

Jean Brownlee, the noted artist, has been awarded the Nobel Prize in art. She is famous for her blackboard doodlings.

Paul Tustin has just stacked away his first million dollars. The proud father of sextuplets, Mr Tustin says, "Gadfrey, six more mouths to feed!" Thus far he has visited the waiting room twelve times. (Maternity waiting room, that is.) Who's he married to? Why Jenny Longstreath, that Hollywood beauty, of course.

Dick Call, famous architect, has just patented his revolutionary soap box derby racer. He also turns out a large production of Latin ponies. His cohort in business is none other than Bill Russell.

News has reached us that the Meloy-produced Macbeth cast has been asked to do command performance for the King and Queen of England. This play stars John Flack and Mary Elizabeth Fisher.

Bob Munnell is coaching the Pittsburgh Steelers for the tenth straight year. He has been defeated only twice since coming directly from high school to his coaching position. His success if attributed to Ralph Forquer's "Faith-Fire-Fight" slogan.

Mona Lee Clark, June Dague, and Elizabeth Wooton, those famous make-up artists, have signed another contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer calling $1,000,000 a year. They have been in Hollywood for four years now.

In our latest addition of "Ring Magazine" we find Jarvis Grover fighting for the heavyweight championship of the world with Bill Doak. Jarvis has been fighting since the church league games against Dick Call. (The editor will accept all bets.)

Dorothy Foust and Patty Eiduke have discovered a new drug that prohibits the teacher from giving anything but A's to Chemistry and P.O.D. students. The unwilling guinea pig was none other than Mr. Jack.

Tom Wiley has written a book on how to get along with teachers. The book contains only one sentence and I quote, "Don't take any of their subjects"..... unquote.

We see where Frannette Riva and Mary Kobilic have collected their English talents and have willed them to all mankind so that Mrs. Meloy can have a vacation.....

The crystal ball is clouding but I can barely discern Paul Fetherlin, George Bigler and Bud Stewart huddling about an operating table. Who's on it. Oh no! It's Mr. Grover! Now boys, take it easy.

The ball is dark now. I see no more. The class of 1950 has passed in revue.

Class Will

We, the graduating class of nineteen hundred and fifty, feel that it is fitting and proper for us to leave, as individuals, some remembrance to the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-one. So with all good intentions the following pass on to their successors their most treasured possessions.

Elliott Meyer leaves his pipe and man of distinction look to "Boris" Orum.

Bud Stewart wills his property rights to a piece of curb stone on North Wade Avenue to anyone who thinks he has a chance.

Mona Lee Clark leaves her winning ways to the Junior girls, who certainly need them.

Bob Munnell bequeathes his "Sunday best" work shirts to Deac Dinsmore.

Patty Eiduke leaves her position as Senior cheerleader to Freda Rapport.

Virginia Longstreath wills her cooking and sewing abilities to Nancy Sims with the hope that she may get as nice a guy as Jenny did.

John Martin leaves his "WRECKLESS" driving to Tom Scott.

June Crouser wills her quiet ways to Imogene McDonough.

Carolyn Leech leaves her accumulation of Jay boys to Virginia Cronin and Ann Gessner.

Sally Hannon leaves her petiteness to Polly Longdon.

June Dague wills her "excellent" driving ability to Jane Nichols.

Alice Poellot leaves her cute figure and singing ability to Mousie Bruno and may she do as well with them.

Bill Russell leaves his love for Trinity girls to all the dissatisfied Juniors.

George Bigler and Nancy Prigg leave all their problems to anyone who thinks he can solve them.

Franette Riva leaves her success at business college to Arlene Price and Rena McNair.

Barbara Chalfant wills her frequent trips to Johnstown to anyone going that way.

Mary Kobilic leaves her secretarial abilities to Patti Welsh.

John Flack leaves his "Cassanova" ways to Bobby Caffrey.

Paul Fetherlin leaves his many female companions to anyone who desires one.

Dick Call leaves his football ability to Dick Seal with the best intentions.

Craig Wayman leaves his dancing technique to Tommy Furbee.

Tom Wiley wills his spectacular English recitations to Jackie Dunn.

Paul Tustin wills his wide awake look to Ernie Crumrine.

Marcelle Stargardter leaves her great understanding of Senior English to Jean Ward.

Bill Doak bequeathes his basketball prowess to the future varsity.

Walter Whitcher leaves his ability to get along with Mr. Knestrick to Victor Cohen.

John Slater wills his ready wit to the boys in the future spelling class.

Mary Elizabeth Fisher leaves her Shakespearean talent to Doris Lane.

Jeanne Boyd leaves her ability to go steady to Mickey Courson.

Jean Brownlee wills her artistic skill to Anna Simcsak and Dolores Lindley.

Elizabeth Wootton wills her job at Murphy's to Norma Ackroyd .

Dorothy Foust leaves her undying love for Mr. Jack to Dolores Roe and Gloria Campbell.

Jarvis Grover leaves his job at the Basle Theater to anyone who likes popcorn.

Stu Horne leaves his chair in the boiler room to Tracy Bryant.

We, the Senior Class, being partially sound in mind and body do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament.
